CLOSED COMMITTEE WORK SESSION –

Review / Discuss the following:

- Review OADA voting results on relevant questions
- Criteria discussion
 - Should we add Colley wins to the formula before calculating 2-year winning %?
 - Should we consider factors outside winning % within the 2-year time frame when moving a team back to originating classification? Annual review?
 - Should we consider not allowing schools to be playoff eligible that meet the criteria and choose to play down a classification?
 - Should we consider applying some type of criteria to schools who wish to use the enrollment zone exception to play down – there are some concerns that a school choosing to play down to the 8-player level should not just have the option without some type of review of “success” at the 11-player level.
 - Should we look at league strength and the potential to keep a team at the same classification level even if they are below 22% in-class winning percentage – should they just be moved to a “weaker” league before being allowed to move down a classification level.
- Game type at the 2A Classification level
 - 9-player Football
 - Any 2A school choosing to continue to play 11-player will have the option to participate at the 3A level in Football and would not be required to move other sports/activities up to the 3A.
 - Elimination of the enrollment zone
 - All 2A schools currently playing down to the 1A level would be returned to the 2A classification to participate in the 9-player game.
 - Big 8 – Little 8
 - Model divides all 2A and 1A schools, except those participating in 6-player, using adjusted ADM into two separate 8-player divisions.
 - Any 2A school choosing to continue to play 11-player will have the option to participate at the 3A level in Football and would not be required to move other sports/activities up to the 3A.
 - Provides an option to set a cut-off number for 6-player football
 - Maintains traditions of the 8-player game
