Charge to the Medical Aspects of Sports Committee

OSAA Constitution, Article 9.3 – “Medical Aspects of Sports Committee” states :

9.3. Medical Aspects of Sports Committee

- 9.3.1. Charge. The Committee is a joint committee of the OSAA and the Oregon Medical Association (OMA). Its primary purpose is to ensure the health and safety of student-athletes who participate in OSAA sponsored activities.
- 9.3.2. Composition. The Committee membership includes physicians from various fields of practice (orthopedic, cardiology, family practice, internal medicine, sports medicine), athletic trainers, and OSAA staff. Members are selected based upon interest and expertise, with geographic representation a consideration.
- 9.3.3. Term. Committee members serve at the request of the OSAA Executive Director and have no predetermined term limits.
- 9.3.4. Meetings. The Medical Aspects of Sports Committee meets quarterly (four times during each school year).
