

Trenton Crane – Salem Academy

Trenton is a three-sport athlete at Salem Academy, participating in Football, Basketball and Golf.

He was the salutatorian of his class with honors in English, Science, Mathematics, and Foreign Language, and was inducted into the National Honor Society. Trenton was involved in the Dental Explorers Program administered through OHSU and volunteered all 4 years at the Salem Area Literature Tournament.

To Trenton, he believes that respecting everyone and building strong relationships as a leader was something that he learned from other leaders at his school, and staying poised during stressful times lead to success.

Trenton will attend Oregon State University this fall.

Isabel Alles – Lake Oswego

Isabel is a varsity softball player at Lake Oswego. She assists in leading Youth Softball camps in the Lake Oswego area and coaches in her free time.

Academically, she works hard to maintain her 4.0 weighted GPA and being an active member in both the National Charity League (NCL) - a not-for-profit organization established to support community philanthropy, along with the softball team. Isabel has committed time to support food pantries, clothing closets and park clean ups. Her favorite community involvement activity was the Chelsea Hicks Foundation, which provides therapeutic dress up and craft support for children in local hospitals. After high school she will pursue Nursing and has already earned the "Stop the Bleed" certification. Her goal is to continue building the necessary skills to care for others in the future.

Bodey Lutes - Marshfield

Bodey is a two-sport athlete at Marshfield High School, playing boys basketball, and track and field and won an OSAA State title, and setting a new state record in the 800m & 400m.

In the classroom, Bodey has maintained just under a 4.0 GPA, while participating in OSAA sports, and being part of the charity program at Marshfield, fundraising for his last 2 years for the Ark (an organization to help at-risk youth), and finally he was the Activities Coordinator his senior year.

Bodey believes that respect and relationships are the most vital aspects to being a great teammate, being able to foster relationships with those on his team and community led him and his teams to be successful.

Bodey will run track at the University of Oregon this year.
