

RISE LEADERSHIP SERIES

Empowering Coaches to Address Injustice & Racism

RISE is committed to educating and empowering the sports community to eliminate racial discrimination, champion social justice and improve race relations.

We believe all of us play an important role in driving change in our communities across the country. To enhance our support for coaches, staff and administrators serving youth (ages 11 to 18), we are offering a series of virtual interactive workshops throughout 2021. We invite you to join us for the first workshop on Feb. 24 and to spread the word with your youth sports network.

WHEN: Wednesday, February 24 from 5:30 to 6:30pm ET

REGISTRATION REQUIRED: Click here to register. Once registered, you will receive an email with details to save to your calendar.

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW: We will cover six topics across the 2021 RISE Leadership Series for coaches. The first workshop focuses on identity. Participants will take a closer look at the labels they use to define themselves and the multifaceted nature of their identities. At the conclusion of the workshop, attendees will receive tools and resources that can be used with colleagues and the youth they serve.

Future workshop topics include diversity concepts, bias and perspective taking, privilege and power, civic engagement and community building.
